

Essay Peer Review

There is a thesis statement. It is the last sentence of the introduction and the first sentence of the conclusion. These two statements mean the same thing but are not written in the same words. _____ yes _____ no

This essay has three body paragraphs. These paragraphs have topic sentences which tell the readers what the paragraph will be about. These topics support the thesis statement. _____ yes _____ no

There are at least three quotes, which support the thesis and are arranged topically into the appropriate paragraphs. There are quotation marks around these quotes and the author and page number are cited. _____ yes _____ no

This writing shows thought. There are no double words, illogical sentences, run-on sentences, fragments or other errors which interfere with the meaning of the text. It is a thoughtful argument, which is well made.
_____ yes _____ no

The paper is written in 12-point font. It is double-spaced and it is three pages long. _____ yes _____ no

If all the YES lines are checked you may return the paper to the writer!

If there are NO lines checked please make a list of all the steps the writer need to accomplish prior to submission.
